

REVOLUTION IN PERU

Probable Success of the Rebels.

The Effect on the Spanish-Chilian Contest.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Nov. 21, 1865.

The Government received this morning a dispatch from Callao, dated Oct. 28, from which the following is taken:

Respecting the revolution in Peru, I have now to report somewhat of definite progress. The Revolutionists have abandoned their camp in Pisco, and advanced as far as the village of Lurin on their march upon Lima. I cannot ascertain the exact number of their forces, but, from all accounts, should judge it to be about 10,000.

The army of the Government has already marched out to meet them, under the command of President Pezet, in person.

There was a rumor yesterday of a skirmish at Lurin between the advance guards, although nothing yet is positively known. The decisive battle may, perhaps, be taking place at this very moment. I think it is the prevailing impression that the Revolutionists will be victorious. In the event of their success, it is thought that Peru will break off her present relations with Spain and declare in favor of Chile.

VERMONT.

Chief-Judge Poland to Succeed Senator Collier in the U. S. Senate—Other Vacancies Filled.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Tuesday, Nov. 21, 1865.

Gov. Dillingham has appointed the Chief-Judge of the Supreme Court, the Hon. Luke P. Poland of St. Johnsbury, to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate occasioned by the death of Senator Collier. Judge Poland is one of the ablest lawyers in the State, and his appointment gives general satisfaction.

The Hon. John Pierpont of Vergennes, First Judge, has been appointed Chief-Judge of the Supreme Court, and Judges Barrett, Kellogg, Peck and Wilson have been promoted to fill the vacancies, and Benjamin H. Steele of Derby, has been appointed Fifth Associate-Judge of the Supreme Court.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Nov. 21, 1865.

RECONSTRUCTED ALABAMA.

A letter received from an Alabama Postmaster to-day states that all Union men are rigorously excluded from Reconstruction Conventions and official position. The conviction reigns supreme that the new State Government organizations are for the special benefit of all the Rebels.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

The total amount of internal revenue received since the first day of July, is $14,901,844. At this rate, the annual receipts will be over $360,000,000.

THE NEW-YORK COLLECTORSHIP.

It may relieve much political anxiety to state that the Government has no thought of meddling with the New-York Collectorship at present.

THE ELLIOT-DAVIS PRIZE FIGHT.

Interference of the Capital Police at Albany—The "Mall" Indefinitely Postponed—Contradictory Reports.

The great national prize fight for the championship of America between William Davis and James Elliot did not come off in the vicinity of Albany, as was expected by a large number of the sporting fraternity who had assembled from all parts of the Union.

The "fancy" were around, the ring had been almost formed, when the strong arm of the law interfered, and, more kind to them than they were to themselves, prevented the occurrence of sprawling mangling "mills," which might possibly end in the death of one or other of the combatants perhaps both.

The consequence is that Davis and Elliot can, if they choose, go comfortably to sleep to-night in the full enjoyment of unbroken heads, unblackened eyes and unmangled bodies. Some time before daylight yesterday morning about 300 of the sporting fraternity assembled at the Albany Armory depot, expecting that a special train was ready to take them, at 6 a. m., to Esperance Schenectady County, but 6 o'clock came and no train was ready.

It appeared that a special train had been engaged as afforders of a means of getting away to Albany, but 7 a. m., and the regular train was not allowed to start. The rain was pouring down in drenching torrents at this time, and all hope of a pugilistic encounter was almost at an end. There was a general escape from the depot to the lager-beer saloons and rum-shops, where the potations were long and deep.

Stanis Hall was made the head-quarters, and in a short time a large number of the champions, patrons and friends of the pugilistic ring were congregated around the bar freely discussing the merits of the principals, their prospects of a fight taking place; while backers of either offered and made bets as to the issue of the contest.

It soon became apparent that there would be no fight, and a great many left for New-York. About 2 o'clock there was a slight row around the bar of the Stanis Hall, but half a dozen policemen made a dashing charge in one door, while the roughs made their exit through another, strongly fortifying themselves on the side-pieces, which the Metropolitans did not attempt to dislodge.

The 2d regular train was anxiously looked forward to as affording a means of getting away to Albany, but 7 a. m., and the regular train was not allowed to start. The rain was pouring down in drenching torrents at this time, and all hope of a pugilistic encounter was almost at an end. There was a general escape from the depot to the lager-beer saloons and rum-shops, where the potations were long and deep.

Stanis Hall was made the head-quarters, and in a short time a large number of the champions, patrons and friends of the pugilistic ring were congregated around the bar freely discussing the merits of the principals, their prospects of a fight taking place; while backers of either offered and made bets as to the issue of the contest.

The appliances having subsided and order being restored, Mr. McCollum said that Mr. John Hecker had unanimously nominated for Mayor, and Mr. Richard O'Gorman for Council to the Corporation. The motion was put to the house and carried amid deafening shouts of applause.

The following Committee were then appointed to wait on the candidates and notify them of their nomination:

Majority Committee—A. H. Lockwood, Nineteenth Ward; Vincent C. King, Ninth Ward; Hugh Rogers, Eighth Ward; George Higgins, Eleventh Ward, and C. B. Heath, Thirteenth Ward.

Corporation Committee—Gow-Shea, Twenty-second Ward; H. Richardson, Twenty-first Ward; T. E. Nolan, Tenth Ward; Judge Thomas A. Lovell, Twentieth Ward; G. M. Green, Fifteenth Ward, and Thomas O'Gorman of the Twenty-first Ward.

The meeting was no further business the Convention adjourned to meet again at the call of the Chair.

THE MOZART HALL MAYORALTY CONVENTION.

Nomination of Fernando Wood—His Address and Declaration—Nomination of John Hecker for Mayor and Richard O'Gorman for Council to the Corporation.

This Convention met again last evening, pursuant to adjournment. Mr. B. F. Fairchild in the chair, and Mr. Thomas A. Lovell and Mr. Muller officiating as secretaries. The meeting was called to order shortly before 8 o'clock, when the secretary was directed to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that they had held a conference with the committee appointed by Tammany Hall. He had had much experience in such matters, but he never felt so humiliated as he had been by that conference. There was an inequality on the part of the Tammany Committee. They had intended nothing except to call the roll. This having been done and all the members having answered to their names, the convention proceeded to the business of the evening, which was to nominate candidates for Mayor and Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman then called for the report of the Conference Committee, when Mr. Shea, Chairman of the committee, submitted a report that